

A survey may only be edited (updating question_groups, questions and propositions) if no takings are present.
The user interface may propose to either flush the takings or duplicate the survey.

When a user finishes a taking filling, the interface may propose to show the report (the current answers for each question (presented by question_groups)).
If it's a KnownParticipation the interface may also propose to send the report by email.